

KATTY STRITE

One person. Many mediums.

MMA · ARTIST · ACTRESS · MODEL · ENTREPRENEUR · BUSINESS STYLIST · DESIGNER

Katty Strite is a multidisciplinary artist working across movement, image, business and style. She trains and competes in mixed martial arts, acts for film and camera, founds and runs independent companies, and styles brand identities and printed matter.

The disciplines inform one another: the fighting shapes the design, the design funds the business, the business makes room for the art.
